

Executive Profile

Tim Blodgett

Tim Blodgett has served as President and CEO of Hometown Connections, Inc. since 2001. He is responsible for Hometown Connections' overall efforts in delivering value to community-owned utilities. Mr. Blodgett has worked with many utilities in the areas of governance training, strategic consulting, and board development with an emphasis on continuous improvement. He is a frequent speaker at industry forums across the U.S.

Mr. Blodgett joined Hometown Connections in 1998 as the Vice President of Sales and Marketing, helping to transform a startup organization into a well-recognized industry institution known for providing a wide array of products and services that meet the unique requirements of community-owned utilities.

Prior to joining Hometown Connections, Mr. Blodgett was the Director of Sales for a subsidiary of KN Energy and PacifiCorp, where he assisted energy distribution companies with their customer care programs. Mr. Blodgett played a key role in the development and sales of Simple Choice, a broad residential package of products and services including energy and home services, infotainment and communications services.

Advisory Strengths

- Strategy
 - Strategic planning for long-term utility effectiveness
 - Industry trends and issues impacting the future of public utilities
 - Measuring and sustaining the value of community ownership of utility services
- Board Governance
 - City council and utility board effectiveness
 - Succession planning
 - CEO relationship management
- Community/Stakeholder Engagement
 - To promote benefits of community ownership of utility services
- Joint Action Agency/State or Regional Association
 - Product and service development
 - Joint programs for providing services to utility members of several agencies or associations to achieve economies of scale